NO MORE LOCAL PAVING UNLESS RELEASE CLAUSES ARE SIGNED

Council's Experience This Year With Claims Cause Change

BIG FUSS IS OVER THIRD

No more paving will be done in Charleroi borough while the present council lasts without releases of damages being signed, unless there is a change of mind on the part of the members of that governing body. This year has seen too much litigation and disagreement and in the future the intention is to avoid this if at all possible.

The big fuss was over Third street. The grade was changed from what it originally was to allow of the building and improvement of a double street, with a wall as a dividing line. This improvement idea was put through, but it did not meet with the unqualified approval of all the property holders along the street. Results were that within the last two months viewers were appointed and damages were assessed after considerable quibbling and after various hearings. Yet satisfaction does not obtain and there is talk of further litigation to be instituted by one or more property owners.

Lincoln avenue and Fourth street disputes have just reached a head and the outcome of claims for paving troubles is awaited with interest.

In the past council has faced numerous other issues and has succeeded in many cases in reaching a settlement. But henceforth release of damage papers it seems will be required.

TELLS STORY OF SHOOTING, DIES

Van Voorhis Man Makes Direct Accusation During Hour of Consciousness

NOTARY TAKES STATEMENT

After regaining consciousness long enough to tell the story of his fatal shooting, John DeGilo, Polish miner who was shot at VanVoorhis Wednesday, died at the Memorial hospital. Monongahela, this morning at 4:30 o'clock. His dying statement was taken by a notary at Monongahela late Thursday night when be became conscious.

DeGilo made a statement accusing John Rebish, now under arrest for the shooting and Pete Ballybone, also under arrest, of being an accomplice. In his story of the affair he stated the trouble started on Sunday, when Rebish drank his beer at a card party on the creek bank. They had a quarrel, but nothing came of it.

Wednesday night, he declared, Rebish and Ballybone came to his house and tried to get in. He barricaded the door and they used a pick to break in a window. He then went out on the porch and Rebish shot three times at him, only hitting him once. Ballybone inflicted with the pick the wound he bore on his right wrist. He in turn shot at Rebish but the latter dodged and he wounded Ballybone.

Funeral is Held.

The funeral of John Emmer who died a few days ago in Lincoln, Neb., was buried from the Slavok church at 4 o'clock Thursday. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

The doors are wide open. Santa Claus made his headquarters at H. Porter's Jewelry store, the gift shop of Charleroi. At your service. 131-t1—*

WANTED IN MONESSEN MAN ARRESTED HERE

Negro Accused of Stealing Morphiates From Doctor's Office and of Taking Diamond Ring—Appears to be Known Elsewhere

On description furnished by the Monessen police, a negro known as Clyde Arnet or Clyde Turner was arrested by Police Gus Brickner on McKean avenue at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, charged with burglary. He is alleged to have entered the office of Dr. H. W. Day at Monessen and to have stolen morphiates and cocaine, also to have stolen a $65 diamond ring from Newton Phillips of Monessen. The man was taken to Monessen today.

He was prevented from using any of the drug Thursday night after arrest, but upon advice of a physician was given the opiate this morning.

It is alleged that the man has served time elsewhere for burglaries. He formerly was employed at the Brownsville Elks' lodge it is said and got away with a considerable amount of money. Other names he uses are Clyde Smothurs and Charles Anderson.

The commonwealth has but one witness and that is Butler, who was a party to the crimes. He was the only witness before the grand jury.

The prosecutions grew out of the entry and robbery of the stores of George F. Peterson, D. H. Borland and Ben Friedman at Monongahela. At the Peterson stores about $25 worth of shoes were taken and at the Borland store about $25 worth of silk goods. At the Friedman store all manner of clothing was taken to the value of $107.50. DICK D'SANDERS VS BARNEY M'GUIRE, IN THE MAIN BOUT AT THE RINK MONDAY NIGHT

TEN-YEAR-OLD BOY TERRIBLY HURT WHEN KICKED BY HORSE

Henry Turnbull of Charleroi in Critical Condition at Hospital

WAS HELPING FEED ANIMALS

With fractured skull and terrible injuries about his face and head, Henry Turnbull, aged 10 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Turnbull of First street and Lookout avenue is in the Memorial hospital, Monongahela. in a critical condition as a ersult of being kicked by a horse Thursday afternoon. The accident occurred at Zeidman's stable on Lincoln avenue while the lad was helping feed the animals.

Young Turnbull was passing a stall on his way to feed the horse in an adjoining stall when the horse kicked. The heavy hoof caught him full in the face, smashing bones and cutting deep into the flesh. His nose was flattened as though entirely removed and left a mass of broken bone and torn tissues.

Immediately picked up by stable helpers the lad was given local medical attention and hurried to the hospital at Monongahela, where an operation was performed. He is unable to breathe through his nose. His other injuries seem almost if not quite as serious. Doctors hope that his skull fracture is not of such nature as to cause death and are optimistic of bringing the lad around all right, though the critical period has not yet been passed. He is partly conscious at times.

The lad was a pupil in the Second street school, being in room No. 4, where he had been attending school regularly.

EXCITING CASE BROUGHT TO END

Woman Acquitted of Serious Charges—Shooting Affray Only a Part

MAN IN CASE IS NOW DEAD

Mrs. Lulu Ryan, formerly residing at Vesta No. 5, with her husband, Edward Ryan was acquitted Thursday afternoon in the county courts and the costs were put in her husband, Edward Ryan. The sympathy of the jury was evidently with the little nervous woman. She denied emphatically that she had even had improper relations with John Shanefelt.

The domestic troubles of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan reached a climax a year ago, which almost resulted in murder. Mrs. Ryan, John Shanefelt and his mother, Mrs. Mary Shanefelt, had been at Fredericktown over night. They had boarded the early morning train for West Brownsville.

At Centerville, Edward Ryan got aboard the train. He found his wife in company with Shanefelt. Shanefelt said some taunting things to Ryan and there was a quarrel. Ryan pulled a gun and fired several shots. His wife, Shanefelt and Mrs. Shanefelt were all injured, but not seriously. Shanefelt in the excitement, jumped from the train.

Ryan was later arrested, charged

CHARACTER STUDIES OF SIDNEY LANDON PLEASE

Sidney Landon, an entertainer of more than ordinary ability entertained at the high school auditorium Thursday evening in his character studies of great literary men, appearing second in the Citizens' Entertainment Course.

Landon impersonated Victor Hugo, Edgar Allan Poe, Bill Nye, Henry W. Longfellow and an old friend of James Whitcomb Riley. "Making up" and attiring himself properly, with such facial expressions as to make one think they saw the original, Landon recited some of the best literary productions of each. The literary entertainment was in line with the divertisement of makeup, and one would not have been complete without the other. His best probably was that of the old man who was a friend of James Whitcomb Riley's.

The next entertainment will be a lecture by Arthur Walwyn Evans, a Welsh wit and humorist who will appear Wednesday evening, December 6.

Die Lorelei Club Meets.

Members of the Die Lorelei club were entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. Seth Bane at her home in North Charleroi. Fancy work was the diversion. Lunch was served. The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. Bartley Burke in Lockview.

NO CLASS CONTROL.

There is no such thing these days as class control of political situations thanks to the democratic spirit of the nation and patriotic instincts of the people. Credit for an exposition of this idea is given the Washington Observer, which offers editorially the following:

Many of those who are analyzing the result of the votes cast for president in the different states and communities throughout the country can see in it the reason why this particular one went for Wilson, or for Hughes. Each analyst sees unmistakable evidence of the havoc wrought against a certain candidate or party, because of a certain element of the voting population.

The labor vote, the women vote, the hyphenated vote, the pacifist vote the liquor vote, the church vote—various classes of people, societies and organizations are given credit, or blamed with the result.

As a matter of fact any unprejudiced analyst will discover that the class vote did not have after all any great bearing on the general election. One would offset another in a certain community.

Evidence accumulates that the labor vote did not elect President Wilson, for labor votes its convictions rather than on orders. Evidence also shows that the foreign born citizens of this country did not all vote one way by any means. And so it is with the other class votes.

It would be a sad day for this republic if our elections were turned one way or another by a class vote. The hope of democracy lies in the fact that in this country we are all citizens of the republic, interested alike in its welfare and imbued with the conviction that what is best for any one of us is best for all of us.

Class legislation and class voting alike are detrimental to the safety and to the hope of the republic. And we believe that if the last election shows that no one class of voters, arrayed as a class against class, controlled the votes which were cast on Tuesday, November 7.

GAS SUPPLY DIMINISHING

What ultimately was feared has happened. A gas shortage of the same proportions as that of last winter has caused a curtailment of industrial operations in Western Pennsylvania giving an indication of what may follow.

No gas concern in kingdom come can tell us that the supply is not lessening. This applies to domestic consumption the same that it does to industrial consumption. We do believe however that with proper conservation there is enough to last for domestic uses for years to come, if industries carry out their present plans to install other systems than that of gas.

Last winter western Pennsylvania industries suffered their first real trouble from lack of gas. Up until that time there had appeared to be natural gas enough and to spare. Perhaps the concerns engaged in drilling and distributing the supply knew of the approaching crisis, but if so they kept the matter strictly to themselves. We might have known however from the feverish activity they showed in seeking new fields that something was wrong.

What was needed all the time was conservation and no notice was taken of the fact. Now there will be conservation from necessity, and it may be too late. Only one thing may save us and that only a few years. This is the installation by industries of new oil producing and powdered coal systems.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"HOLDING UP" RETURNS

The current issue of The Editor and Publisher, New York, contains an interesting account of the matter in which returns from the recent election were "held up" in California. been such in the West that they would wipe out the entire vote in back counties. This year, however with the vote running close, it soon became evident that any one of the counties that have not before been factors in the final count, might this year decide the presidential issue.

"Some sections in California, for example, must send returns in through Reno, Nev. They lie on the Eastern slope of the Shasta Range, from which all lines of communication run into the Sage Brush state. In the northern portion of California there are counties not reached by railroad and which receive their supplies by steamer. There are towns and lumber camps that have their outlet over logging roads where trips are made, perhaps, three times a week. Some sections of Southwestern Oregon had to send returns via Reno, the only outlet over the wires of the Nevada, California and Oregon railway. In New Mexico there are whole counties in which there is not a foot of railway, in some telegraphic communication is limited and uncertain, and in others there is no means of reaching the outer world except by stage coach, as in the case of the eastern mountainous portions of California. Every effort was made to reach the points closest to the depots of information and every endeavor was made to get the returns by special messenger."

The newspaper reader has little comprehension of what it meant to get the election returns to them. The news was gathered by the newspapers through their press associations. Some of the employes of these associations were on duty from Tuesday afternoon till Thursday afternoon.

It was a wonderful election, surprising and disappointing. Hereafter, the newspapers will be more cautious about basing their conclusions upon the early returns.—The Brownsville Telegraph.

WHAT OTHERS THINK

Among the passengers on a train on a one-track road in the middel west was a talkative jewelry drummer.

Presently the train stopped to take on water and the conductor neglected to send back a flagman. An express came along and before it could be stopped, bumped the rear end of the first train.

The drummer was lifted from his seat and pitched head first into the seat ahead. His hat was jammed clear down over his ears.

He picked himself up and settled back in his seat. No bones had been broken. He drew a long breath, straightened u pand said:

"Well, they didn't get by us, anyway."—Newark Sunday Call.

The backyard of a house in a Massachusetts town is overlooked by the windows of an orphan asylum. In this backyard stood a barrel of apples which were disappearing at a rapid rate.

The woman of the house, a widow and a knowing mother, summoned her 6-year-old son to make inquiry touching the curious disappearance of the fruit.

"Yes, mother, I've eaten the apples," he confessed, "but I really had to do it."

"Had to do it?"

"Yes, mother; the orphans wanted so many cores"—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

WOMAN GIVEN TWO DAYS

To Make Up Her Mind for Surgical Operation. She Refused; Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I only took four doses before I felt a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3432 Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

HIGH SCHOOL SQUAD DRILLS HARD FOR MONESSEN GAME

Head Coach Grimm and Coach Leahey have been hard at work every afternoon and evening this week drilling the Charleroi high school football squad for their hard game tomorrow afternoon with Monessen high school on the Monessen field. Tonight the final practice will be held and the local warriors will be fitted to go into the battle in their finest condition. Practically every man on the team is in tip-top physical condition. Those last Saturday on the hospital list are recovering from their injuries and are speeding up in their work. Monessen this year has one of the best teams it ever had and will fight hard.

MERCHANTS UNABLE TO GET HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS AS EXTRA CLERKS

Those merchants who have been depending upon high school girls and young men as extra clerks during the busy holiday season this year will have to look elsewhere. There will be only one week of school vacation and it will come at a time when the season is waning. The reduction of the vacation period from two weeks to one was necessitated by the late start of the schools because of the infantile paralysis quarantine.

WEAK AND TIRED WOMAN

Tells How Vinol Made Her Strong.

Charleroi women who are weak, rundown and suffer from the consequent effects of such a condition, will be interested in Mrs. Odell's letter. She says:

"I am a farmer's wife and was all run-down, weak, tired and suffered from indigestion and sometimes it seemed as though I could not keep around and do my housework. I had taken many medicines without benefit. One day I saw Vinol advertised and made up my mind to try it. I have taken four bottles and have gained seven pounds in weight, am much stronger and feel many years younger than before." Sarah Odell, Lockport, N. Y.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, run-down women so quickly is because it contains a delicious combination of most successful tonics, beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates, in a mild tonic wine.

We want to say to every weak, run-down, overworked woman in Charleroi that we will return your money if Vinol fails to help you as it did Mrs. Odell.

D'SANDERS-M'GUIRE FIGHT POPULAR MATCH

DeSanders has not appeared here for a number of weeks and his popularity under the Buchanan management is such that for the coming fight a big crowd is assured. He is now considered as one of the most promising of the coming generation of Pittsburg battlers. He will face no uncertain task in the go with McGuire Monday night. In the semi final Monday Martie Henderson who recently drew with Eddie Wimler at the rink will fight Jim Crawley of Pittsburg. Joe Larue of Charleroi and Johnny Todd of Donora will box the second bout of the evening's entertainment and a good first bout will be providede.

EXCITING CASE

with felonious shooting. He entered a plea of guilty and was paroled. He holds a position with the Vesta Coal company. Shanefelt and Mrs. Ryan were arrested, charged with crimes against morality. The case has been continued from time to time.

Shanefelt, it was brought out in the case yesterday, is now dead, having been burned to death in a stable fire in Fayette county. It was when he came into the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan that trouble started.

Much excitement was caused during the argument of Attorney Robert E. Burnside, who was appointed to look after Mrs. Ryan's interest, when Mrs. Bridget Skean, a sister of the prosecutor, Edward Ryan, took exceptions to the criticisms heaped upon her by the counsel in his argument. She was sitting back in the court room. She rushed from her seat to within the bar and was making straight for the attorney when she was stopped. A tipstaff finally persuaded her, though she was stubborn at first, to leave the court room and the arguments were resumed.

"Gets-It" Never Fails for Corns!

There's Nothing on Earth Like It For Corns and Calluses.

"Whenever you get corns and calluses, don't experiment — just use "GETS-IT" and nothing else. Easiest and simplest thing I know to use —just a few drops on in a few seconds—"GETS-IT" does the rest." The old way is to bundle up your toes in harnesses and bandages, use salves that make toes raw, cotton rings that make your corns pop-eyed, knives and "diggers" that tear your heart out and leave the corn in. No wonder they make you limp and wince. Forget all these—use "GETS-IT," the simplest corn remedy in the world, easiest to use, never fails or sticks, painless. Your corn loosens, then you lift it off. You can wear smaller shoes.

"GETS-IT" is sold and recommended by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price, by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

"Sold in Charleroi and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Piper's Drug Store, Frank J. John."

Some folks would give anything to get rid of constipation, stopped-up, irregular bowels. Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, Nature's own remedy and see how quickly your constitpation disappears. Your money back if it fails. 35c. Tea or Tablets.

Consistent Advertising!

Consistency in advertising is as necessary to the building of a business as anything else. Suppose for instance that the several candidates whose campaigns for the presidency and other government positions have just closed, had left their intesests take care of themselves as soon as they had received the nomination. Do you think the interest would have been so great if these men had just waited for their election with little or no effort on their part to obtain it? You, Mr. Merchant, must do as they did. Keep your merchandise before the people consistently, and like Mr. Wilson you will be pleased with the results.

AMONG THE THEATRES

COYLE—CHARLEROI

Nat Goodwin appeared in the leading role of "A Wall Street Tragedy," which was the feature attraction at the Coyle theatre Monday of this week. Tuesday Maurice and Florence Walton, who are known in all the leading cities of the United States and Europe as dancers appeared in the leading roles of "The Quest of Life." Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne in a five act drama, "In the Diplomatic Service" was the attraction Wednesday. Thursday Theodore Roberts and Anita King appeared in "Anton, The Terrible" a Jesse Lasky production. The story was laid in Russia at the present time and was a mixture of political intrigue, love and a peoples' fight for freedom. "The Reward of Patience" an appealing story of a Quaker girl's romance featuring Louise Huff was shown Friday. Among the announcements for next week is "Romeo and Juliet" featuring Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne which will be shown Friday November 24.

PALACE—CHARLEROI

At the Palace theatre this week a program that was rich in all the essential features that go to make an attractive week in moving picture productions was presented. The organ which was newly purchased was a feature. Pipes will shortly be installed. On Monday the five-part Red Feature film, "What Love Can Do" was preserted. The Tuesday feature was the Carter DeHaven series. The DeHaven series of comedies is proving popular at the Palace and the Tuesday film was among the best. Wednesday a three-part Gold seal film was featured under the title, "The Husks of Love," with Clare McDowell in the starring role. King Baggott was presented Thursday in "The Life Sublime." The Friday film is one of the Hazards of Helen series and the Saturday feature will be a Ham and Bud picture. Practically all the scenery for the new theatre is hung and decorators are at work.

MAJESTIC—CHARLEROI

The attractions at the Majestic theatre during the week just ending featured some of the best known film stars. Monday Douglas Fairbanks was at his best in "The Habit of Happiness." "The Jungle Child" an unusually attractive picture featuring Howard Hicks and Dorthy Dalton was shown Tuesday. Clara Kimball Young enacted the leading role of Wednesday's attraction which was "The Dark Silence." Thursday "Saving the Family Name" was the leading feature. Phillip Smalley and the two most prominent roles. For Friday Norma Talmadge is appearing in "The Social Secretary." The program being announced for Saturday is headed by "The Aryan" in which Louise Glaum, William S. Hart and Bessie Love are appearing. Special music and comedy pictures are pleasing features of the Majestic programs. Many interesting pictures have been booked for the coming week.

NEW DAVIS—PITTSBURG

Names that are eloquent of artistry and varied divertisement are found in the list of acts, nine in number, which Mr. Harry Davis announces for presentation in the New Davis theatre every afternoon and evening during the week beginning Monday matinee, November 20. Jack Norworth, comedian, has returned to America. He brings back from London a lot of personal anecdotes of a thoroughly humorous character. Despite the tragedy of the war, life in the English capital has its lights as well as its shadows and the British "Tommy" floating in or out of the capital as the tide of battle ebbs and flows, has furnished the redoubtable American monologist with many a breezy, witty quip. Sam and Kitty Morton, of the famous Four Mortons, stars of "Breaking Into Society," will be here with a new specialty of singing, dancing and repartee. L'Argentina, said to be the greatest Spanish dancer since Carmencita, is coming for her local debut. L'Argentina, as her name suggests, is from the South American republic. Maleta Bonconi, perhaps the greatest living girl violinist, is another of the attractive features which will make Mr. Davis's program brilliant in artistry. Besides five other specialties of the highest merit, the program will include a new picture comedy entitled "The Crosbys' Rest Cure," with Sidney Drew in the leading part.
